Founding Editor Farewell

Daniel Benor, MD, ABIHM, IJHC Editor in Chief Emeritas

After 20 years of publishing the International Journal of Healing and Caring, at the age of 80, I've decided it's time to retire. It's been a long road, publishing 3 issues annually, with 4-7 articles in each issue. I was delighted and privileged to encounter many wonderful therapists in the process of editing and publishing each issue of the IJHC. In many cases they sought me out with their article submissions. In other instances, I invited them to propose ideas and experiences to share from their varied practices in the spectrum of assessments and guidance of many clients in their broad varieties of wholistic healing.

We found that many therapists and clients assumed the ways they were practicing and experiencing therapy were THE way to practice and receive healing. Both therapists and clients were very pleased to discover the breadth and depth and varieties of alternatives available in alternative therapies.

I'm very pleased that the IJHC is going to continue publication under the guidance of our new Editor-in-Chief Dr. Kendra Gains and in joint partnership with the National Alliance of Energy Practitioners (www.naoep.org).

"We believe that uncertainty always comes before growth, that change is just another word for opportunity, and that the antidote to fear is inspiration.

We believe in the indomitable spirit of a community united.

We are devoted to building a greater understanding of how science and spirituality can contribute to enhancing the potential for having meaningful lives as humans."

I wish you good, enjoyable reading and learning!

Blessings

Dan
