ANNOUNCEMENT and INVITATION to AUTHORS

Special Edition on AI integration into Integrative, Complimentary and Holistic health care.

IJHC announces a special invitation to scientific authors for scholarly contributions on a special focus for our Sept 2026 edition. We seek both opinion and referenced articles that will pass a peer review process and that have not been previously published which are on the use of AI systems in Integrative, Complimentary and Holistic health care. Computer Scientists, Physicists, Physicians and all types of practitioners are invited to submit. The articles may include AI systems as a replacement for any style of holistic care, including but not limited to: Music and Sound therapies, Energy Psychology, Energy Healing, Homeopathy, Shamanism, Ayurveda, Herbal medicine and other forms of holistic care. Papers should be submitted by Aug 10, 2026. They should be 500-8,000 words in length and properly referenced. Please include a CV and public email and bio for the first author. The top 6 -15 papers submitted, which pass peer review, will be published. Please email the papers to ijhcjournal@earthlink.net

Please note: We are not looking for magazine style articles nor are we reimbursing authors. Appropriate articles will receive doi reference numbers and be posted to the metadata service.
